LARGE Enrollment at A. S. A. S.

The Appomattox school opened last week with a full body of young men and women.

Addressess of welcome were made by Revs. Callahan and East and Prof. Crowley.

The faculty for the year is as follows: Prof. L. Crawley, Prof. C. T. Akers, Miss Harriet Laugh, Miss Katherine Lambsbury, Miss Flora Williams, Miss Alice Pace, Miss Gladys Smith, Miss Edmonia Hardy, Mrs. Charlie Caldwell.

The enrollment in the high school is above the average.

The senior class appears to be the largest in the history of the school, already 29 having applied for graduation.

The boys' dormitory is overcrowded, but the attendance of girls is not quite as large as usual.

There are a number of pupils from other counties and a number yet to come, after the crop is harvested.

The work of the school is now well under way and the prospects of another good year looks inviting.

The personnel of the student body is good and Prof. Crowley says there seems to be few dead ends or loafers, and that he does not intend to tolerate any that nature.
